

Independent Naturopath Opportunity

OVERVIEW:

ATMA CENA is engineering network infrastructure for therapists and integrative health clinical practices across Canada to have the opportunity to participate in the exciting emerging field of psychedelic-assisted therapy. Therapists and clinics can find more info Here.

We are thrilled to offer this exciting opportunity to an independent naturopath interested in working within an interdisciplinary collaborative clinic environment focused on integrative mental healthcare treatments. The ATMA CENA Calgary clinic will be full service, innovative, mental health and psychedelic therapy clinic. Private practice operations will run in tandem with general psychotherapy practices and a comprehensive psychedelic therapy program. If you are a skilled clinician who would like to work in a team atmosphere and are excited to participate in the delivery of holistic mental health treatment, this opportunity is for you!

We are seeking a Naturopath to continue operating their private practice within an integrative mental health centre to provide clients with wrap around care to aid in addressing the root cause of mental health issues. This opportunity is also available to motivated naturopaths who currently work in an existing practice, but who are interested in operating their own private practice.
